FINANCIAL.

The phenomena of unconscious cerebration probably in excessive development on Madison street, but occurring facts are few. Banks occupy a lofty place in the commercial atmosphere, and those upper regions have the calraness that reigns in the azure, and an all-pervading calraness affords no news. York, and eastern demand par buying, 14 premium selling; New Orleans 14 discount, selling at par. The New York Bulletin, of Saturday, reported: "New York Exchange was quoted to-day as follows at the places and the selling in the se named: Savannah, buying 3-16, selling 5-16; Charleston easier, offering freely, 3-16@1-5 premium, 4 premium; St. Louis; 1-10 prepremium; $4 premium; St. Louis; 1-10 premium; Cincinnati steady, buying par, selling I-10; New Orleans, commercial $4, bank $4; Chicago, 50 to 75 premium." Gold was taken by the brokers at 106. The great practical financial problem of the day appears to be expressed in the question "How to invest money?" Those who have capital find extreme difficulty in placing it to any advantage; those who have none, but have opportunity to borrow, cannot tell what to do tunity to borrow, cannot tell what to do with money if they had it. What to make that will pay, and what to buy that will sell at a profit, appear to be among those un-known quantities that algebra consigns to letters of the alphabet. In local stocks and bonds no transactions of interest are reported. We hear of things offering and things asked for, but if actual transfer from one hand to another takes place, the parties concerned are as secret as Mrs. Miller as to how the hand-changing is done.

demand is slight; but a few of good quality could be placed. Bran has lost that eager demand that caught it up so readily two weeks ago; wheat bran was offering at $20, and no takers in sight. Cornbran is in increasing supply; 197 sacks sold at $13; 100 sacks were sold to a consumer at $14; the large amount of cornmeal grinding gives promise of illimitable supplies of cornbran. Ralroad bonds were active and generally strong. The stock market was comparatively firm in the early dealings, and prices advanced in the general list, but after the first call a weaker feeling set in, and there was a decline ranging from ½ to 2 per cent. After midday there was a sharp pressure to sell, especially trunk lines. This movement was based on a dispatch from Chicago that the New York Central had reduced passenger fares to $15 to New York, in consequence of a fast train on the Penasylvania road. This was followed by a report that the pocling arrangement had fallen through, and that the railroad war would be reopened. The market, after the second board, ralified ¼ to ½ per cent. from the extreme low prices current after midday, but toward the close became weak again, and the towest prices of the day were made in the final dealings. There were some heavy sales of long stock, and the bears were also potting out short lines, which dragged the market down. COTTON.

The cotton market had yesterday the advantage of receiving Liverpool telegrams, but the report from that place showed no notable change since the last dispatch of Friday. The other telegrams showed but one change of price, which was an advance of ½c in New Orleans. The tone of the market was generally favorable from all quarters. In our market there was a good demand, principally for ordinary and good ordinary. These grades, however, were in scarce offering, and the want of a more plentiful show of such cottons want of a more plentiful show of such cottons as are wanted checked transactions. The market closed firm, with a good demand and an Vicksburg Commercial, Monday: "From Mr. George Donahue, we learn that the steamer C. P. Huntington was burned Saturday evening last, at six o'clock, while lying at Martinville, at the foot of Honey Island, Yazoo river. Everything on board was lost, including three hundred dollars in currency. The Huntington was owned by Messrs. Forbe & Fitzpatrick, of this city, and had been con-verted into a trading-boat, especially for the Yazoo, Sunflower and Tallahatchie rivers. She was in charge of Captain Boccaletta and clerk Donahue.

An exposess of an exposer of the spiritual persuasion, solid and liquid, or otherwise, as we go along to say, has bankrupted a couple of our marine clerks—two excellently clever young men-the particulars of which will be found on our local page. We are sorry to hear that these young gentlemen have had such a tearfully materialized demonstration of the fact that one of the weaker vessels could go back on them for a few dollars and a half. Never mind, boys; you will save ten-told the amount by treasuring the experience taught in this transaction, and we hope you are impressively reminded of that ante-biblical injunction, "Samivel, bevare of the wid-No wonder we were invited to take
